

SEPTEMBER 2024
	SUBJECT	CONTENT	OBJECTIVE
1. WEEK	Lifestyles	1a Night and Day Around the Milky Way 1b Grammar in Use	To learn vocabulary for daily routines and leisure activities in context, to listen and read for gist, to read for specific information (multiple choice), to learn prepositions, to practice words easily confused, to expand vocabulary through contextual speaking and writing activities To learn/reverse the present simple and present continuous, to compare action verbs & stative verbs, to learn/reverse stative verbs with continuous forms, to learn/reverse adverbs of frequency, to express agreement and disagreement using so, neither, and nor in appropriate contexts
2. WEEK	Lifestyles	1c Skills in Action Culture 1: Teen Life in Ireland Review 1	To learn vocabulary for describing people, to listen for specific information (matching), to act out a dialogue and practice every day English for introducing people, to learn the pronunciation of homophones, to read for how to describe a person's character, to write a blog entry about a favorite person To listen/read for gist, to read for specific information (true/false), to describe the typical daily routines, families, and extracurricular activities of teenagers in Ireland and compare them with other cultures To test/consolidate vocabulary and grammar learnt through the unit, to practice every day English

3. WEEK	Shop Till You Drop	2a Harrods "All Things, for All People, Everywhere"	To learn vocabulary for shops and shopping, to listen and read for gist (matching headings to paragraphs), to read for specific information (true-false), to make sentences using the phrases, to expand vocabulary through contextual speaking and writing activities
4. WEEK	Shop Till You Drop	2b Grammar in Use 2c Skills in Action	To form and use the past simple and used to correctly in speech and writing, to apply the correct order of adjectives , to make comparisons accurately To learn vocabulary for clothes-patterns & materials, to listen a specific information (multiple choice questions), to act out a dialogue and practice every day English for describing lost property, to learn the pronunciation of silent letters, to read an e-mail and replace adjectives in the given paragraph, to write an e-mail about a weekend break

OCTOBER 2024
	SUBJECT	CONTENT	OBJECTIVE
5. WEEK	Shop Till You Drop	Culture 2: Borough Market 1000 years of shopping Review 2	To listen/read for gist, to read for specific information (gap-fill task), to ask for things in a shop and describe objects, to write a short text for an online travel magazine (ICT) To test/consolidate vocabulary and grammar learnt through the unit, to practice every day English
6. WEEK	Survival Stories	3a Surviving Solo 3b Grammar in Use	To learn vocabulary for weather phenomena, feelings, and sounds in appropriate contexts, to read for specific information (multiple choice questions), to recognize adverbs, to make sentences into the correct order (sequencing task), to write a blog To form and use the Past Continuous Tense with while/when and distinguish it from the past simple
7. WEEK	Survival Stories	3c Skills in Action	To learn vocabulary for feelings & sounds, to listen for specific information (listen for attitude), to act out a dialogue and practice every day English for a witness report, to learn the pronunciation of stressed words, to read the story (sequencing task) and learn a variety of adjectives and adverbs, to write a well-organized story , incorporating past tenses and descriptive language

		Culture 3: Sir Ernest Shackleton	To listen/read for gist (brainstorming), to read for specific information (gap-fill task), to collect information and write a short paragraph (ICT)
		Review 3	To test/consolidate vocabulary and grammar learnt through the unit, to practice every day English
8. WEEK	Survival Stories	Values A: Diversity	To listen and read for specific information (matching headings to paragraphs), to define what diversity is and explain its significance in various settings and compare it with other countries
		Public Speaking Skills A	To give presentation to entertain the audience, narrate the events, inform and persuade the audience
		CLIL A: History: In England century ago	To listen for a specific information (true-false), to talk about key historical events and social changes in England a century ago, analyze their impact on society, and compare them to modern-day developments using content and language-integrated learning (CLIL) strategies

NOVEMBER 2024
	SUBJECT	CONTENT	OBJECTIVE
9. WEEK	Planning Ahead	4a Forum	To listen/read for identifying different jobs and their required qualities, to read for specific information (multiple choice questions) (gap-fill), to learn prepositions, to practice words easily confused, to expand vocabulary through contextual speaking and writing activities
		4b Grammar in Use	To form and use will, going to, and the present continuous tense to discuss future plans
10. WEEK	Planning Ahead	4c Skills in Action	To learn vocabulary for job qualities, to listen for a specific information (multiple choice questions), to act out a dialogue and practice every day English for having a job interview, to learn the pronunciation of it , to read an e-mail and replace the informal phrases with their equivalent formal ones, to write an e-mail applying for a job
		Culture 4: Part-time American Student Jobs	To read for comprehension by developing critical thinking skills by evaluating how part-time jobs impact students' education and future careers, to read for specific information (multiple matching), to collect information and write a short text (ICT)

15. WEEK	Health	6c Skills in Action	To learn vocabulary for parts of the body & injuries, to listen/revise for a specific information (multiple matching), to act out a dialogue and practice every day English for at the doctor's , to learn the pronunciation of /ɪd/ , to understand the text related to health (read for coherence & cohesion/missing sentences), to write an e-mail about a health issue
		Culture 6: Royal Flying Doctor Service	To read for detail (missing sentences), to expand vocabulary through contextual speaking and writing activities (ICT).
16. WEEK	Health	Review 6	To test/consolidate vocabulary and grammar learnt through the unit, to practice every day English
		Values B: Volunteering	To listen and read for specific information (paragraph completion), to research ways to volunteer and create a one-minute video promoting volunteering (IC)

JANUARY 2025
	SUBJECT	CONTENT	OBJECTIVE
17. WEEK	Health	Public Speaking Skills B	To give presentation by reflecting on their personal interests and skills to identify meaningful volunteer opportunities and develop empathy and social responsibility through discussions and real-world examples
		CLIL B: Food Preparation & Nutrition: Food Label	To listen/read a specific information (true-false), to analyze food labels to understand food preparation and nutrition
18. WEEK	Stick to the Rules	7a Welcome to Green Forest Campsite	To learn and use vocabulary related to rules, regulations, and chores in various contexts, to listen for a specific information (multiple choice), to learn new words/phrases related to the text, to learn prepositions, to expand vocabulary through contextual speaking and writing activities
19. WEEK	Stick to the Rules	7b Grammar in Use	To understand and apply modal verbs (present & past modals) and the imperative to express rules, permissions, and obligations
		7c Skills in Action	To learn vocabulary for chores, to listen for specific information (multiple matching), to act out a dialogue and practice every day English for asking about/explaining rules, to learn the pronunciation of can/kæn/- can't /kɑ:nt/ , to read for detail (match headings to paragraphs), to write an advert about a flat for rent

20. WEEK	Stick to the Rules	Culture 7: The Greatest Race in the Land Down Under	To read for detail (T/F/DS Statements), to use appropriate vocabulary and expressions to discuss and write about cultural and sporting events, to collect information about a race in other countries and make a presentation about it (ICT)
		Review 7	To test/consolidate vocabulary and grammar learnt through the unit, to practice every day English

FEBRUARY 2025
	SUBJECT	CONTENT	OBJECTIVE
21. WEEK	Landmarks	8a A Hidden of Wonders	To identify and use vocabulary related to geographical features, man-made landmarks, and materials, to listen for a specific information (complete sentences), to learn opposites of the given words, to learn prepositions, to expand vocabulary through contextual speaking and writing activities
22. WEEK	Landmarks	8b Grammar in Use	To understand and use the passive voice correctly in different tenses to describe processes, actions, and events where the focus is on the action rather than the doer
23. WEEK	Landmarks	8c Skills in Action	To learn vocabulary for man-made landmarks and materials, to listen to and understand the text (listen for detail-gap-fill task), to act out a dialogue and practice every day English for asking an information, to learn the intonation in passive questions, to read an article about a landmark (gap-fill task/sentence completion), to develop writing skills by composing an informative article about a landmark, incorporating descriptive language and passive structures.
24. WEEK	Landmarks	Culture 8: Man-made Landmarks in the UK	To listen/read for specific information (multiple matching), to enhance their research and critical thinking skills by analyzing famous landmarks and their significance (ICT)
		Review 8	To test/consolidate vocabulary and grammar learnt through the unit, to practice every day English.

MARCH 2025
	SUBJECT	CONTENT	OBJECTIVE
25. WEEK	Live and Let Live	9a NoDodos	To learn and use vocabulary for endangered animals and green activities in various contexts, to read for specific information (comprehension questions/short answer format/sentence completion), to learn prepositions, to expand vocabulary through contextual speaking and writing activities (ICT)
26. WEEK	Live and Let Live	9b Grammar in Use	To understand and apply the past perfect tense, second conditional, and reflexive pronouns in spoken and written communication
27. WEEK	Live and Let Live	9c Skills in Action	To learn vocabulary for green activities, to listen for detail (multiple choice), to act out a dialogue and practice every day English for making suggestions-agreeing/disagreeing, to learn the intonation of identifying feelings , to read for specific information (comprehension), to write an article providing solutions to a problem
		Culture 9: Footprints Eco Festival	To read/listen for specific information (comprehension), to collect information about an eco-festival, write a short paragraph and present it (ICT)
		Review 9	To test/consolidate vocabulary and grammar learnt through the unit, to practice every day English
28. WEEK	Live and Let Live	Values C: Good citizenship	To listen and read for specific information (matching paragraphs to circles), to understand the text related to the key principles of good citizenship, including responsibility, respect, and community involvement, and analyze real-life examples of good citizenship and its impact on society
		Public Speaking Skills C	To listen to and read the model in the given text, to collect information and give presentation about the how to save water at home (ICT)
		CLIL C: Science: The Greenhouse Effect	To read and explain the concept of the greenhouse effect and its role in global climate change and identify the causes and consequences of the greenhouse effect using scientific vocabulary, to collect information about the carbon footprint and how does its amount be reduced (ICT)

APRIL 2025
	SUBJECT	CONTENT	OBJECTIVE
29. WEEK	Holiday Time	10a Top Travellers	To learn and use vocabulary related to different types of holidays, weather conditions, and hotel services & facilities, to read for specific information (T/F/DS statements, matching opposites), to learn prepositions, to listen for a specific information (gap-fill task), to expand vocabulary through contextual speaking and writing activities
30. WEEK	Holiday Time	10b Grammar in Use	To understand and correctly use the (to) infinitive and -ing form in various sentence structures, to identify and apply relative pronouns, adverbs, and defining relative clauses in speaking and writing, to learn how the is used with names of
31. WEEK	Holiday Time	10c Skills in Action	To learn vocabulary for hotel services & facilities, to listen for detail (multiple choice), to act out a dialogue and practice every day English for checking in at a hotel, to learn the pronunciation of rhyming words , to read for specific information (comprehension & short answer format), to write a hotel review
32. WEEK	Holiday Time	Culture 10: Discover Scotland Review 10	To develop reading and listening comprehension skills through texts and discussions about Scotland, to collect information about different places and types of holidays in other countries and create a brochure (ICT) To test/consolidate vocabulary and grammar learnt through the unit, to practice every day English

MAY 2025
	SUBJECT	CONTENT	OBJECTIVE
33. WEEK	Join in the Fun	11a Two Festivals for the Price of One!	To learn and use vocabulary for festival activities and types of entertainment, to read for specific information (multiple choice, gap-fill task), to learn prepositions, to expand vocabulary through contextual speaking and writing activities.
34. WEEK	Join in the Fun	11b Grammar in Use	To use reported speech (statements-questions) , to form changing from direct to reported speech , to recognize personal pronouns& possessive adjectives& time expressions in reported speech , to use gradable/non-gradable adjectives
35. WEEK	Join in the Fun	11c Skills in Action	To learn vocabulary for types of entertainment, to listen for detail (gap-fill task), to act out a dialogue and practice every day English for describing an event, to learn the pronunciation of stressed syllables , to read for specific information (opening-closing remarks in an e-mail), to write an e-mail describing an event

36. WEEK	Join in the Fun	Culture 11: Tjungu Festival Review 11	To read for specific information (short answer, matching opposites), to collect information about an annual festival and write a short text about it for a website's culture column (ICT) To test/consolidate vocabulary and grammar learnt through the unit, to practice every day English.

JUNE 2025
	SUBJECT	CONTENT	OBJECTIVE
37. WEEK	Going Online	12a Batter Safe than Sorry!	To learn and use vocabulary for computer parts and smartphone usage, to read for specific information (multiple matching), to listen for specific information/gist (multiple matching, sentence completion, gap-fill task), to learn prepositions, to expand vocabulary through contextual speaking and writing activities
38. WEEK	Going Online	12b Grammar in Use	To understand and apply reported orders, instructions, and commands in various contexts , to correctly use question tags and exclamations
39. WEEK	Going Online	12c Skills in Action Culture 12: What technology Review 12	To learn vocabulary for using a smartphone, to listen for specific information (multiple matching, to act out a dialogue and practice every day English for giving instructions, to learn intonation in exclamations, to read for specific information (gap-fill task), to write a for-against essay To read for specific information (multiple matching), to collect information about a museum of technology in other countries (ICT) To test/consolidate vocabulary and grammar learnt through the unit, to practice every day English.
40. WEEK	Going Online	Values D: Cooperation Public Speaking Skills D CLIL D: Art & Design: Art Movements of the 20th Century	To enhance critical thinking and collaborative skills through group projects and discussions on art and cooperation. To learn and use key vocabulary related to technological advancements and digital tools and give presentation about a new piece of technology (ICT) To read for specific information (multiple matching), to collect information about another art movement of the 20 th century and prepare a presentation (ICT)